

FIND DRY AGENT AND WOMAN DEAD BY GAS IN GARAGE

Walter A. Neely of Trenton and Companion Sitting in Car, Engine Running.

BOOTLEG PLOT SEEN.

Agent Prominent Socially and Once Commander of American Legion Post.

(Special to The Evening World.) TRENTON, N. J., Dec. 30.—The fumes pouring from around the closed doors of a garage on Hermitage Street, where Federal Prohibition Agent Walter A. Neely kept his automobile, caused a policeman to enter at half past 9 o'clock this morning. The place was filled with suffocating fumes. The sound of a running automobile engine came out of the muck.

When the smoke cleared the policeman saw that Mr. Neely was lying back behind the wheel of the car.
Lying against him with her head on his shoulder was Mrs. Annabelle Gleason of No. 126 East Front Street, a comely young woman, who has been separated from her husband for the last five years. On investigation it was found that both were dead. It was assumed they had been asphyxiated by the confined gasoline and oil fumes.

Mr. Neely, who was thirty-three years old, was a Lieutenant in the World War and had been active in American Legion affairs in New Jersey. He was for a time Commander of the Mercer County organization of the Legion. His wife and only child died about a year ago. He was prominent socially.

The three children of Mrs. Gleason were found in the front Street boarding house where she lived. The oldest is eleven. She said her mother had not been home since yesterday morning.

Mr. Neely's home is a few doors from the garage in a fine residential section of the city.

From the condition of the bodies the police did not believe the couple had been dead more than an hour or two when found. It is assumed that Mr.
Neely was about to take Mrs. Gleason to her home in his car and, after starting the car, he held it back in the closed garage to warm the engine because going out in the cold.

Federal and local police are conducting a rigid investigation to learn if the deaths may have been due to an intricate bootlegging plot.

JUDGE M'GEEHAN BIDS GOODBY TO MORRISANIA

Attendants Give City Court Justice Fleet Send Off.

City Magistrate John E. McGeehan, who becomes a City Court Justice on Jan. 1, closed his career on the Magistrate's bench today in Morrisania Court where he began it in August, 1917.
Clerks and attendants escorted him to his office and fired speeches at him and presented a diamond studded fob pin.
Judge McGeehan called a halt when Congressman-elect Frank Oliver, his personal friend, tried to ring in an official farewell, declaring it was purely an official affair and telling the Congressman the fact that he once was a court clerk did not entitle him to practice oratory in a defenseless judge.

MORE COAL EXPORTED THIS YEAR THAN LAST

In November Anthracite Increase Was 110,000 Tons.

tons for November last year, according to figures made public today by the Department of Commerce.

The total exports for last month represented 1,618,037 tons of bituminous and 140,308 tons of anthracite, while the exports of bituminous in November, 1921, were 1,678,976 tons and of anthracite 223,380 tons.

POLICE TO FRISK CITIZENS' HIPS FOR NEW YEAR FLASKS

In which cases there have been convictions will be served with court injunctions," Mr. Yellowley said today.
"And upon their next conviction of breaking the law they will be closed tight for a year and a day.

"I am going to make a strong effort to keep this city dry on New Year's Eve and the following day. I have had a conference with Police Commissioner Enright, and he has assured me of the hearty co-operation of himself and his policemen.

"If any one has liquor for New Year, let him drink it at home before he starts out for the evening's festivities, because if he is caught drinking it in any public place he will surely be arrested."

The first of the court injunctions were served today on saloonkeepers who have violated the liquor law, and now if they violate it again their places will be closed for a year and a day. There are 200 saloons on Mr.
Yellowley's list and the remaining ones will be served as rapidly as possible.

Those places upon which injunctions have now been served and their proprietors are: Morris, Poguchin, No. 427 East 151st Street, Bronx; Edward Vundich, No. 353 Willis Avenue, Bronx; Louis Porco, No. 247 Southern Boulevard, Bronx; Morris Smookler, No. 1763 Third Avenue, Bronx; James Kermath, No. 5020 Eighth Avenue; Joseph Cohn, No. 502 Tenth Avenue; Aaron Shapiro and Tony Esposito, No. 307 Columbia Avenue, Bronx; Charles Kaiser, No.
2401 East 177th Street, Bronx; William Carroll, No. 335 Willis Avenue, Bronx; James Seiffert, No. 782 East 180th Street, Bronx; Charles Meyer, No. 920 Freeman Street, Bronx.

Avenue, Bronx; Francis Bloom, No.
327 Fourth Avenue; Thomas O'Brien, No. 208 East 45th Street; Anthony Tedone, No. 12 East 47th Street; Peter Mongrone, No. 205 East 114th Street; Joseph Weinstein, No. 20 Jefferson Street; Thomas Blanchard, No. 36 West Street; Isidor Schwartz, No. 26 West 17th Street; William Storey, No.
305 Grand Street; Peter Lanerich, No.

FEDERAL BRIEFS DENY RIGHT TO APPEAL IN SHIP BOOZE CASES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—The Federal Government in a brief filed in the Supreme Court today held that the appeals of the foreign steamship lines against the recent Prohibition decision of Judge Hand, at New York, had failed to show that the United States had consented to be sued, and that the cases could not therefore be prosecuted.

The Government also insisted that the Court did not have jurisdiction, for the further reasons that the appeals "do not present a cause of action in equity under the Constitution of the United States and do not disclose a cause of action equitable in its nature, civil in its character and arising under the Constitution of the United States."

It also was declared that the facts alleged in the appeals are insufficient to constitute a valid cause of action in equity, and that the steamship companies have a complete remedy at law which they should follow, rather than the course they have pursued.

LEBAUDY HEIRS SAIL ON LA SAVOIE AFTER DIVIDING THE ESTATE

Mrs. Henri Sudreau, Former Wife, Gets $2,455,076; Daughter's Share, $4,955,076.

Mr. and Mrs. Henri Sudreau and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Sudreau, the women the former Mrs. Jacques Lebaudy and her daughter, Jacqueline, returned to France for the winter today on La Savoie of the French Line after having settled up the estate of the late "Emperor of the Sahara," who was shot to death by his wife and left about $13,500,000.

Mrs. Sudreau, the elder went immediately to her cabin and sent out word to reporters that she was ill.
Her husband declared his wife and his son's wife were both satisfied with the division of the estate. The former Mrs. Lebaudy received $2,455,076 and her daughter got $4,955,076. Each agreed to split her share with the Countess Jean Marie de Fola of Paris, sister of the decedent. The former Lebaudys will return to Westbury in May, it was said.

Before the departure of the ship a delegation of passengers who arrived on La Savoie waited upon Capt. Henri Boisson and presented him with a brass candlestick, a desk clock and a written testimonial, declaring their conviction that his seamanship saved the ship on its westbound voyage.
Miss Selma Edwards, a dancer of Buffalo, made the presentation.

Undertaker, Badly Hurt.

Miss Grace Bacigalupo of No. 549 Pearl Street was run over by the head truck of a southbound elevated train at the south end of Chatham Square the platform. She was removed to Gouverneur Hospital with one leg crushed and her face badly cut.

the Vanderbilt telephone exchange and taught the piano to children.
Her sister, Miss Florence Bacigalupo, is organist of the Church of St.
James, at James and Oliver Streets.

The two with their twenty-year-old brother, have been in hard straits to support their three younger sisters since the death of their father, who was a grocer for many years at William and Pearl Streets. He was a

PAROLED ON CHARGE OF EXHIBITING MINORS

President of Stage Club Threatened With Jail Before.

Harry A. Schulman of New Rochelle, President of the National Stage Service Club, was arraigned in West Side Court today and paroled until Jan. 4 on a charge of exhibiting minors in a theatrical performance. The children's society charged that 125 children were in a revue called "Hello, Broadway," at the East 10th Street, 26th Street and Seventh Avenue, on Dec. 17. The children named in the complaint were Barbara and Ardele Hastings, six-year-old twins, No. 7 Landscape Avenue, Yonkers.

Schulman has been fined twice before for exhibiting children and the last time was threatened with jail.

The Smith family hopes for a day of quiet today, but dread the almost certainty of disappointment.
From present appearances the neigh-

JERSEY CENTRAL GETS PERMIT FOR BRIDGE OVER BAY

Protest of Newark Officials Disregarded by Secretary of War Weeks.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Secretary of War Weeks today authorized the erection by the Central Railroad of New Jersey of a new bridge across the south end of Newark Bay, replacing the existing bridge, which is unsuitable because the width of the draw is not sufficient for the passage of vessels, it was announced today. The estimated cost of the new bridge is approximately $5,000,000.

The action of Secretary Weeks was taken over a protest from the City of Newark, which proposed construction of a tunnel under Newark Bay, which the railroad company estimated would cost at least $100,000,000.
Weeks stated in a letter to Thomas L. Raymond, Newark official, that he granted approval because this was the most feasible way to protect navigation interests.

MURDER INDICTMENT AGAINST WALTER WARD LIKELY TO BE QUASHED

Counsel to Move Again for Dismissal Tuesday—Says State Can't Disprove Self-Defense Plea.

(Special to The Evening World.) WHITE PLAINS, Dec. 30.—Former Supreme Court Justice Mills of Mount Vernon completed a long brief today which he will submit to Justice Seeger on next Tuesday morning when he will make another motion for the dismissal of the murder indictment against Walter S.
Ward, former Police Commissioner of New Rochelle. Ward was indicted for killing Clarence Peters, an ex-sailor, on May 17 last.

Mr. Mills says that the District Attorney has made no move to bring Ward to trial and that there is little likelihood of ever being a trial.
For that reason he asks that the indictment be dismissed.

It is thought the indictment will be quashed. This is based upon the statement of Mr. Mills that the District Attorney has been unable to get any evidence to disprove the statement of Ward that he shot in self-defense. Ward alleged that the killing was the result of a plot instigated by Peters and two others to blackmail him out of $70,000. District Attorney Weeks, who obtained the indictment, retires from office Jan. 1.

DRY NAVY FLAGSHIP TURNS RUM RUNNER HERSELF DOWN BAY

seventy cases were plenty for evidence against the sinking craft.

So the good ship Hansen headed back for New York and the customs men counted the cases of booze as it then sought the seclusion of the cabin —seasick, mighty seasick. They recovered when the wharf was reached and Deputy Surveyor of the Port and Inspector O'Keefe were there to meet them.

They reported the seventy cases, and the deputy and inspector with a single voice cried:
"Show me!"

There was nothing like seventy cases. The deputy surveyor called in more men, called in the Special Service Squad, put a guard of police at the end of the pier, put lookouts to seaward, and then searched the flagship and pride of the Dry Navy.

Four "hams" (cases) and two bottles forward in the crew's department.
They found two cases of Scotch in the bag box in the engine room. Under the engine's bed as if they had been there turned out of the distillery, eleven bottles were salvaged. They found sixteen "hams" in the galley locker.

"Yo ho and a bottle of rum!" Aye, me hearties, and more bottles —as more in the messroom and two more in the scupper. A gallant ship, me hearties!

INFANT PARALYSIS MENACE DENIED BY DR. MONAGHAN

Acting Health Chief Takes Issue With Prof. Brues Regarding 1923 Epidemic.

Dr. Frank T. Monaghan, Acting Commissioner of Health for New York City, does not agree with Professor Charles T. Brues as to the probability of a serious outbreak of infantile paralysis in this country next summer.
Professor Brues, before the American Association for the Advancement of Science, being held in Boston, yesterday said the disease recurred in waves and epidemics of unusual severity, appear every second and seventh year, that the epidemic spreads rapidly and declines quickly, but leaves a trail of paralyzed people. He fears a recurrence next summer.

This to Dr. Brues, as it is essentially a summer disease, indicates it is borne by some insect, perhaps a flea or fly, or from some migrating animal. Dr. Brues suspects it is the rat, and cites that in New York City the epidemic was most severe in districts where rats were most numerous, near the water front and sewers.

"With all due respect to Professor Brues," said Dr. Monaghan today, "there is no evidence obtainable here that infantile paralysis is due next summer. These things do come in cycles as he says. We may have it next year. We know of no means of preventing its recurrence, because the method of contagion is not yet known. Should it come, however, and we are always watching for it, we feel quite sure we will be able to handle it better than before, because of our experience in the previous epidemic. But there is no reason to fear it, especially this coming summer."

BALKED BY FRANCE, HARDING TURNS TO OPEN DIPLOMACY

of the Conference of Premiers in Paris. That conference meets next Tuesday. Between now and then the impression made by the Harding-Hughes proposal for a revival of the International Bankers' Committee idea will be carefully weighed by French opinion. After many months of clamoring for American help the French will pause before they reject a concrete suggestion which is so carefully worded that it involves no responsibility on the part of any of the Governments to accept the recommendations of the commission when once made.

"Governments need not bind themselves in advance," said Mr. Hughes in his New Haven speech, "to accept the recommendations, but they can at least make possible such an inquiry with their approval and free the men who may represent their country in such a commission from any responsibility to foreign offices and from any duty to obey political instructions."

If Governments saw fit to reject the recommendations upon which such a body agreed, they would be free to do so, but they would have the advantage of impartial advice and of an enlightened public opinion. Peoples would be informed the question would be rescued from assertion and counter-assertion and the problem put upon its way to solution."

The foregoing quotation lifts the curtain on what has been happening ever since the first hints were given that diplomatic moves of prime importance were being made by America in the European situation. It shows why the Borch resolution for an economic conference was regarded as muddying the waters at this time. It shows that the American Government was driving hard for the appointment of a commission of bankers to meet in international conference, and that France was privately arguing that her political situation would not permit of any recession at this time from her announced policy of making Germany pay the sums specified in the London conference.

But with all the cards on the table, the American Government has played its trump card—publicity. France cannot very well reject a suggestion that the commission of inquiry be appointed. It can't say in advance that the commission will do the wrong thing. It can only say the matter has already been investigated. But that would not dispose of it, for there is a difference of opinion as to what Germany's capacity to pay has been and will be.

There is a distinct feeling here that the world is on the threshold of an other victory for open diplomacy—appeal to world opinion as against secret negotiation and Continental policies.

HOLD UP PAYMASTER, ESCAPE WITH $20,000

Raid in Office of Plant.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 30.—Armed thieves this morning held up the pay-fices of the company with pistols drawn.

The paymaster, just returned from the bank with the money, heavily guarded by an armed escort, was caught off by the sudden raid.

FOUR NEARLY DROWNED AS THIN ICE GIVES WAY

Three Women and Man Fakes From River by Jersey Postmaster.

While skating on a thin spot on the ice in Rockaway River, a quarter of a mile west of Pine Brook, N. J., a Post office today, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hauenstein of No. 31 Tremont Avenue, New York; Mrs. Frances Kaplan and Miss Annie Zion of the Bronx fell through and had a narrow escape from drowning. Their rescue was effected by Postmaster Joseph Liebskind by means of bridge timbers laid across the hole.
The skaters were among a group of about twenty others from the recreation resort nearby. The four are now recovering from shock at the Sunrise Mount-
